

i have the right and am paying for the right to listen to xmradio. the government should be more concerned with the right to a GOOD education and the BEST health care, rather than trying to stifle the right to listen to the best radio on the air